A journey to the awe-inspiring natural splendour and ancient civilizations of the Southern Hemisphere!

Madagascar - The land of the mysterious baobab trees

Madagascar is a beautiful island known for its unique, one of a kind landscape defined by its virtually untouched nature, and the awe-inspiring views of Baobab Avenue. Enjoy seeing the many animals, flora and fauna indigenous to the island during your visit.

Rio De Janeiro - Brazil's second largest metropolis

The breathtaking symbiosis of Rio De Janeiro's urbanscape and lush nature has made its cultural landscape a world heritage site. Its harbour is also known for having one of the top three most beautiful views in the world, so don't forget to enjoy the breathtaking landscape!

The Iguazu Falls - One of the world's most famous waterfalls

A colossal waterfall system that stretches across the border of Argentina and Brazil, the Iguazu Falls boasts one of the largest water flows in the world. The thundering sound from the sheer amount of water plunging down every second amplifies the grandness of this natural wonder.

※Overland tour

Machu Picchu and Cusco - Walking through the history of the Incan Empire

Cusco, the once thriving Incan capital, and Machu Picchu, the lost city in the clouds, are some of the many ancient city ruins in Peru that chronicle the rise and fall of its indigenous civilization built on a legacy of gold.

Journey through a savannah full of wildlife, the world's oldest desert, the majestic Iguazu Falls, and the grand Patagonia Fjord to discover the natural wonders of the Southern Hemisphere. The voyage will also travel to some captivating world heritage sites in Peru, Easter Island, and bustling metropolitan cities such as Rio de Janeiro.

Easter Island - The isolated enigma surrounded by deep blue sea

Home to the renowned and distinct Moai statues, Rapa Nui (Easter Island) is one of the world's most remote islands. Around 1000 Moai statues are scattered across the island, standing tall and unyielding for centuries.
