Introduction

Let the crisp air of Alaska fill your lungs and rejuvenate you. Watch in awe as a whale's tail gracefully disappears beneath the smooth surface of the sea. Marvel at misty waterfalls cascading down towering cliffs and embrace the fresh smell of pine from the trees that fringe the shoreline. Sailing Alaska's waters with Princess® gives you a personal view of its defining characteristics, whether you're on land or at sea. Explore the charming ports of calls, and delight in the dramatic views of fjords, glaciers and alpine vistas from the deck of one of our iconic ships. Immerse yourself in this spectacular destination and discover all this great region has to offer.

'When planning our trip to Alaska, I asked my uncle who is a lifetime 'cruiser' about which cruise company was the best to take in Alaska and he said, 'Princess Cruises hands down.' – LAURA GRIER, CONTRIBUTOR, HUFFPOST.

Sightseeing

Vancouver – Stanley Park

Vancouver's first, largest, and most beloved urban park! Stanley Park is a magnificent green oasis in the midst of the urban landscape of Vancouver. Explore the 400-hectare natural West Coast rainforest and enjoy scenic views of water, mountains, sky, and majestic trees along Stanley Park's famous Seawall.

Columbia Icefield Snow Coach

The snow coach will travel to a place where you can stop and take photos, walk on the ice and fill your bottle with fresh glacier water. The Athabasca Glacier is one of the 6 principal glaciers fed by the Columbia Icefields. This once-in-a-lifetime experience is a must for anyone visiting the Icefields Parkway!

Glacier Skywalk

The Glacier Skywalk is a 1475-foot long (450-metre) interpretive walk carved and folded into the mountainous landscape of Jasper National Park in the Canadian Rockies. The corten steel and glass structure cantilevers outward, overlooking the Sunwapta Valley and facing the Athabasca Glacier situated in an icefield straddling the Continental Divide where the North American watersheds diverge to the Pacific, the Atlantic, and the Arctic Oceans.

Banff Sulphur Mt Gondola

Experience a world of adventure and beauty at the summit of Banff's Sulphur Mountain. The epic views are truly endless from the rooftop deck or with a stroll along the mountain boardwalk. Top it off with seasonal programs and exciting events for the ultimate mountaintop adventure.

Sightseeing

Lake Louise, the most famous glacier lake and 'Jewelry of the Canadian Rockies'

Lake Louise is a hamlet inside Banff National Park and is located approximately 2 hours from Calgary and 45 minutes west of Banff. Lake Louise is world famous for its turquoise lakes, the Victoria Glacier, soaring mountain backdrop and the palatial Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise.

Kelowna – Lake Okanagan / famous for the mysterious Prehistoric creature 'ogopogo'

Okanagan Lake is home to the legendary lake monster Ogopogo, the creature that lives at Squally Point, located 20 km south of Kelowna. The Ogopogo was known to the First Nations in the community as N'Haatik, the Demon of the Lake.

Seattle – Pike place market, the 1st Starbuck café

This corner store is at the gateway to Seattle's historic Pike Place Market – a location of rich history and vital importance to both Starbucks and the Emerald City. It was, after all, in the Market that the original Starbucks opened in 1971.

Pike Place Market is a long-established farmer's market in the United States. Enjoy the lively "fish throwing show," or stroll through the beautiful old retro streets.

Glacier Bay National Park

Glacier Bay National Park and Preserve is a vast area of southeast Alaska's Inside Passage, a coastal route plied by cruise ships and other vessels. Stretching north of the town of Gustavus, the bay is flanked by high peaks, including Mount Fair weather, and glaciers like the huge Grand Pacific Glacier. Bartlett Cove is the starting point for forest and riverside trails. Wildlife includes humpback whales and puffins.

Itinerary

Day 1

Depart to Vancouver (Chinese Dinner)

Assemble in airport for your long – haul flight to Vancouver. The largest metropolitan centre in Western Canada and the country's third largest City. Upon arrival, meet and greet by the local guide and transfer to visit Stanley Park, a 405-hectare public park that borders the downtown of Vancouver. Proceed to the Gastown as known for its whistling Steam Clock and mix of souvenir shops, indie art galleries and decor stores in Victorian buildings then proceed to Canada Place, Canada's national icon and a hub of activity. Whether strolling the scenic Canada Place Pier, watching majestic cruise ships head to sea, and visit China Town stroll along Dr. Sun Yat-Sen Classical Chinese Garden has tranquil paths and pavilions.

Gastown

Day 2

Vancouver » Kamloops » Revelstoke

(Breakfast/ Chinese Buffet Lunch/ Chinese Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed to Kamloops via scenic Hwy#1 along Fraser Valley, and then climb up to Cascade Mountains via Hwy#5. After the town of Merritt and approaching Kamloops, the scenery will change from rich mountain green to dry desert land. Kamloops in native language, means "the meeting place of rivers", now the 3rd largest BC interior city. Its surroundings are home to one of Canada's ginseng producing areas. Visiting Ginseng Factory, experience first-hand how the natural substance of ginseng.

Snow Coach

Day 3

Revelstoke » Columbia Icefield (with Snow coach) » Skywalk - Banff

(Breakfast/ Buffet Lunch/ Korean Dinner)

Today, you will pass by Mount Revelstoke National Park, experience a treasure of magic and beauty waiting to be discovered - where the most adventurous return with the most rewarding experience and also pass by Glacier National Park of Canada protects, for all time, a portion of the Columbia Mountains Natural Region, in the interior wet belt of British Columbia. The steep, rugged mountains, warm, moist climate and wide variety of plant and animal life are typical of this natural region. Proceed to visit Bow Lake, is a small lake in western Alberta, Canada. It is located on the Bow River, in the Canadian Rockies, at an altitude of 1920 m. Columbia Icefield Glacier Adventure and Glacier Skywalk - setting foot at this 255 meters depth Athabasca Glacier of the biggest flow from the Columbia. This once-in-a-lifetime excursion will leave you feeling exhilarated and inspired, with an amazing ride on a massive Ice Explorer to trek onto the surface of the Athabasca Glacier. After this, proceed to Banff National Park, is UNESCO World Heritage site, and the history can be dated back to 1885, when 3 Canadian Pacific Railway workers discovered the hot spring there, which led to the founding of Canada's national park system.

Glacier Skywalk

Day 4

Banff » Banff Gondola » Banff Town » Lake Louise » Vernon (Breakfast/ Western Lunch/ Chinese Dinner)

Banff Sulphur Mt. Gondola : It is located five minutes' drive from the town of Banff. The eight-minute ride takes guests to a lofty altitude of more than 2,000 meters in cabins that seat up to four people. Once at the top, enjoy 360-degree views of snow-capped peaks, spectacular valleys and the 6 mountain ranges that surround the town and their new above interpretive center. Bow Falls is another must-see where Marilyn Monroe shot her famous "River of no Return", and she never left since, according to local people and some tourists. Banff Avenue is the Main Street in Banff. There are many shops, restaurants and art galleries. Banff Avenue runs the length of town but one section from the Bow River Bridge north to the Safeway is the shopping/dining mecca. Amazing choice of everything to buy with all price ranges. You will fall in love right away with it! Lake Louise is named after Princess Louise Caroline Alberta, the daughter of Queen Victoria. It is the most famous glacier lake and "Jewelry of the Canadian Rockies". The turquoise color of the lake comes from the melting glacier silts nearby. Surrounded by Mt. Victoria and Victoria Glacier (right across the lake far end), Mt. Lefroy and Mt. Fairview (besides Mt. Victoria), and prestigious castle hotel Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise, the lake worth every picture chance. The Last Spike : The first trans-continental railroad connects the east and west. The driving of the Last Spike was the great symbolic for the completion of the railway.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

Dog Sledding & Glacier Adventure By Helicopter Created By Iditarod Musher

Duration: 3 Hours

Juneau

Price: From USD 649.95 per person

Feel the thrill of zipping across a glacier behind a team of huskies! Your exciting journey begins with a ride to the heliport. There, you'll don a pair of glacier over boots and aboard the helicopter for your flight over the Alaskan ice field. When you disembark, you'll be greeted by top Iditarod race veteran mushers who'll introduce you to their dogs and share what it's like to run this brutal race. Soon, you'll learn how to master the all-important commands of Hike! Gee! And Haw! As you and your fellow amateur mushers take turns riding in the basket and driving the dog team.

Great Alaskan Lumberjack Show

Duration: 1.25 Hours

Ketchikan

Price: From USD 39.95 per person

The Travel Channel calls the Great Alaskan Lumberjack Show one of the "Top 10 Things to See in Alaska." From the comfort of covered, heated and cushioned grandstands, you'll get to see Alaska's frontier lumberjacks battle British Columbia's premier woodsmen in a no-holds-barred competition for the title "Bull of the Woods." These world champion athletes are featured in springboard chopping, buck sawing, axe throwing, log rolling and the thrilling 50-foot tree climb, while the colorful host delights the crowd with stories of lumberjack lore.

White Pass Scenic Railway

Duration: 2.75 Hours

Skagway

Price: from USD 135.95 per person

Built in 1898 as a way to expedite travel during the Klondike Gold Rush, the White Pass & Yukon Route Railroad is a three-foot-wide narrow gauge railroad that climbs from sea level to almost 3,000 feet in the first 20 miles. An engineering marvel, it features two tunnels and travels over sky-high trestles and bridges. Considered an impossible feat, the railway was completed in 26 months by blasting through the mountains with 450 tons of explosives. The 110-mile railroad was officially completed when a final golden spike was hammered into place on July 29, 1900, in Carcross, Yukon.
